

Wednesday, June 01, 2016 10:05 AM

Situation Report

Warmer Through End Of Week – Thunder Possible Thurs/Fri

Today

- Highs: Mid 70s
- Variable winds

Thursday

- Highs: Near 80
- South winds 10-15 mph

Friday's Outlook

Cool front crossing the region will bring potential for a few thunderstorms. Overall coverage is not expected to be widespread.

Best chance will be during the afternoon and evening hours.

Strong/severe thunderstorms cannot be ruled out. Marginal Risk for areas generally east of Highway 281 and north of Highway 6.

Afternoon highs: Mid 80s

www.weather.gov/gid

NWSHastings

@NWSHastings

- Minor flooding occurring along the Platte River over the western half of Dawson County.
- At 6.5 feet, minor lowland flooding occurs.
- The river is expected to remain near flood stage the next several days.